

Shakespeare Week
July 2022
Each class looked at a different version of Romeo and Juliet and created a piece of writing and artwork to the rest of the school

Inspiring our children with poetry
Ian Bland will come into school to visit each class to create a class poem. Each class will then perform their poem to the rest of the school.
Date: September 2022

Snowy Owls:
World Nursery Rhyme Week
Recite your favourite nursery rhyme

Afternoon reading for pleasure
⇒ Hot chocolate and reading
⇒ Bring in a cushion/pillow and wear a pjs/onesie
Date: Friday 25th November 2022

Sponsored read
Christmas Santa run

Purchasing a range of reading materials including comics

Listening to adults read a special Christmas story
How Winston came home for Christmas

Afternoon reading for pleasure
⇒ Hot chocolate and reading
⇒ Bring in a cushion/pillow and wear a onesie
Date: Friday 6th January 2023

Our reading calendar
2022—2023
How we promote reading throughout our school

Events for the next academic year
Ask the pupils what they would like to support promoting reading during the school year

Afternoon reading for pleasure
⇒ Hot chocolate and reading
⇒ Bring in a cushion/pillow and wear a onesie
Date: Friday 14th July 2023

National Storytelling week
Teachers to read a story to different classes over the week
January 30, 2023—February 6, 2023

World Book Day
Thursday 2nd March 2023

Famous Author
All classes to focus on one author and to look at how language has changed over the years.
April 2023