

We may have fun all day but we're still learning.....here are our Literacy activities from just one day in the Snowy Owls Class.....

- Phonics — Reception using their wands to write new words and Nursery learning new letters and sounds
- Singing songs which include rhyme
- Dough Disco — strengthening our hand muscles for writing
- Writing our letters to Father Christmas
- Reading 'That's not my....' books
- Re-arranging the 'elfabet' that the Elf had changed
- Listening to our class story, 'How Winston Delivered Christmas'
